Examine and analyze

• What is it?
• Who created it?
• When was it created?
• Why was it created?
• Where was it created?
• What questions does it raise?
• What else do we need to know in order to understand it?
• What evidence does the source contribute to research?